

We bring the Arctic to Africa.

Our extensive network now includes Nairobi.

The global network of Singapore Airlines Cargo continues to expand with the addition of Nairobi – the fresh-cut flower capital of the world. And whether its fresh flowers or livestock you are forwarding, our hassle-free services cover almost every type of cargo. Which means we've got the expertise to deliver virtually anything to anywhere. Our global network now spans 74 cities in 39 countries, with over 600 flights scheduled every week, making us a leader in the airfreight industry.
