Formula One

We fly shipments of valuable and finely-tuned cars and race equipment for the famous Formula One to and from various countries.

We have mounted many charters for Formula One. Some of the destinations include Australia, Brazil, Japan Malaysia and Singapore.

Every piece of equipment in the cargo for the Formula One is indispensable and sensitive. Any damage to the equipment could possibly affect the races and the shipments received the finest care and handling.

Formula One has their own buildup team who we work closely with to ensure that their equipment receive first class treatment during the flights and loading and unloading at their origins and destinations.

International Racehorse Transport

We air freight precious and valuable race horses for international races, for example the Melbourne Cup and the SIA Cup.

To ensure that the horses get deluxe treatment and arrive in their best racing form, we schedule the flights to achieve minimum transit times.

At the horse owners' requests, we can ensure a maximum of two race horses per HMA.

Porsche Carrera Cup Asia

We facilitated the first-ever air transportation of the impressive fleet of 19 Porsche 911 GT3 Cup racing cars.

In 2008, the series raced in Indonesia, Malaysia, and Southern and Eastern China and was a part of the inaugural Formula One night-race weekend in Singapore. After racing in the Formula One Sinopec Chinese Grand Prix, the Porsche Carrera Cup Asia makes its first foray into the Middle East with two races in Bahrain.

The race cars are usually transported by sea freight but with a tight turnaround time from the Formula One event in Shanghai to the season-closer and the distance to the Middle East, meant that the Porsche Carrera Cup Asia took to the air for the first time in its history.

The cars were flown from Singapore on a chartered Boeing 747-400 and arrived the next day with plenty of time for the championship title-decider.

Good networking and reliable relationships with our shippers result in seamless air freighting for our clients.
